MEET THE TEAM

Our team of qualified, mother-tongue English language teachers has a wide range of teaching qualifications and experience gained around the world. They'll ensure your learning experience is fun, friendly and inspiring.

CONCETTA holds a degree in foreign languages and literature with twenty years of experience teaching modern languages in high schools and adult colleges. She currently runs private lessons for students of all ages and levels. For the past eight years she has organized study trips and school exchanges for Italian students. In the last four years she has created and manages COMUNI-CO with specific roles in sales and curriculum.

JAMES holds a BA in German and Italian languages from Oxford University. He has taught English in state and private schools in Sicily and Northern Spain. Qualified translator with over twenty years' experience in editing English business. James has a wide background in school governing and coaching rugby and cricket for young people. He is also one of our teachers and responsible for finance administration.

NINA holds a BA in English language and literature as well as the ESOL qualification from the University of Cheshire. Widely experienced in teaching English as a Foreign Language to different ages in both public and private education. In the last twelve years she has been organizing and managing study courses and trips to schools from mainland Europe. Nina has specific roles in managing host families and recruitment.
